PUBLIC NOTICE: AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) SELF-EVALUATION AND TRANSITION PLAN 30 DAY COMMENTING PERIOD

The City of Patterson has conducted a comprehensive Self-Evaluation of its policies, programs, services, facilities, parks, and public rights-of-way. The evaluation process was the methodology used to help identify accessibility barriers and used as a platform to develop the ADA Transition Plan. The plan aims to remove barriers and enhance accessibility for individuals with disabilities in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973/American with Disabilities Act.

We want to hear from you and invite you to participate in the review of the City's Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan. The plan is available online at <https://pattersonca.gov/m/newsflash/home/detail/591> and hard copies are available upon request.

Commenting Period: March 2 – 31, 2026

Comments can be submitted to Gorete Hahn, ADA Support Representative, via email ghahn@pattersonca.gov, or by phone (209) 895-8033.

For questions, concerns, or alternative methods of materials and communication, please call (209) 895-8033 or email: ghahn@pattersonca.gov.

Thank you for your participation!
